

KRVZ, Springerville, Arizona, has filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at <https://publicfiles.fcc.gov/am-profile/krvz>. It contains information concerning this station's performance since September 27, 2013. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by September 1, 2021. Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.

KJIK, Duncan, Arizona, has filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at <https://publicfiles.fcc.gov/fm-profile/kjik>. It contains information concerning this station's performance since September 27, 2013. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by September 1, 2021. Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.

KNKI, Pinetop, Arizona, and K273BS, 102.5, Show Low, Arizona, have filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at <https://publicfiles.fcc.gov/fm-profile/knki>. It contains information concerning these stations performance since September 27, 2013. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether these stations have operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by September 1, 2021. Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.

KTHQ, Eager, Arizona, and K265DZ, Indian Pine, Arizona, have filed an application for license renewal with the FCC. A copy of this application is available for public inspection at <https://publicfiles.fcc.gov/fm-profile/kthq>. It contains information concerning these stations performance since September 27, 2013. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether these stations have operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by September 1, 2021. Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.